

Tim Daly has voiced Superman on numerous occasions and Nathan Fillion has voiced Hal Jordan in two animated direct-to-video movies. However, the two actors start having trouble separating reality from fiction in the latest episode of Daly's webseries. That's Daly's real life son in the video, plus Michael Rosenbaum makes a cameo at the end. All jokes aside somebody inform Warner Bros. that they missed the boat on Fillion as Hal. [There's always Alan Scott] You can catch both Daly and Fillion voicing their respective characters in Justice League: Doom which was just released in stores today.
