

The viral "Oscorp Industries" website has received an update with the following video and message. It comes with the message, "Are you prepared to engineer a brave new tomorrow? Step into the virtual lab this Monday, May 14th, and help us chart a path to unprecedented innovation." It will obviously undergo another update on Monday, so stay tuned to CBM for details. As we've mentioned above, Andrew Garfield was spotted during filming of The Amazing Spider-Man wearing an "Intern" badge, so this clearly links to the movie in more ways than one. Check it out below and sound off with your thoughts in the usual place. Click on the image below to view the video. A beautiful flower... An idyllic sunset... A vaccine that could cure millions... Most people would not include the above three phenomena in the same category; the first two are naturally occurring wonders while the third is scientifically derived. One could argue
