As expected, its promotion time for the movie which comes out on March 11. Check out the latest poster for Battle: Los Angeles which stars Aaron Eckhart and Michelle Rodriguez. Synopsis: When unknown forces suddenly and mercilessly attack the City of Angels out of nowhere, it's up to a local Marine staff sergeant (Aaron Eckhart) and a new platoon of unseasoned soldiers to meet the threat. As the invasion hits the streets of LA, these Marines become our first and last line of defense in an intense battle against an enemy unlike any they've ever encountered before. This poster sort of reminds me of The Walking Dead poster. Except without the Lawman on a Horse bit.
