

When the reunited Legends of Tomorrow learn that the Justice Society of America may be in trouble, they jet back to the past to lend a hand, but when they arrive, they learn the hard way that the JSA are not exactly the most welcoming bunch. Meanwhile, Nate continues to try and prove his worth to his new team and Sara starts to take on more of a leadership role with Rip still M.I.A. Check out the new extended promo for next week's installment below: TEAM WORK — The Legends travel to Nazi-occupied Paris, but find themselves surrounded by the Justice Society of America (AKA JSA.) The Legends discover a time aberration that threatens the JSA, but the JSA wants nothing to do with them or their help. Nevertheless, the Legends force their way into the JSA's mission to intercept and seize a mysterious package. Nate (Nick Zano) is desperate to prove that he should be part of the team, but he
