

Thanks to ComingSoon, we have our first official look at Marvel Legends' 6" Scale Figures for the highly anticipated Spider-Man: Homecoming. The figures give us a peek at some interesting details, such as a better look at Peter Parker's homemade costume, his upgraded suit (complete with web wings), a wingless Vulture, and most interestingly, a new Iron Man suit that is incredibly reminiscent of the character's very first design in Marvel's "Ultimate" line of comics. Of course, being a toy, this isn't a direct confirmation that the suit will feature in the film, but given its similarity to Tony's most recent suit from Captain America: Civil War, it may not be entirely out of the question! Spider-Man: Homecoming swings into theatres on July 7, 2017.

A young Peter Parker/Spider-Man (Tom Holland), who made his sensational debut in Captain America: Civil War, begins to navigate his newfound identity as the web-slinging super hero in Spider-Man: Homecoming. Thrilled by his experience with the Avengers, Peter returns home,
