

Fans of The Goon will love this footage which sees the man himself demonstrate the best thing do do should you encounter a "Slackjaw" on your way home from the boozier.. This is early rough test animation for the David Fincher / Blur Studios / Dark Horse Entertainment produced film THE GOON. Based on the Dark Horse Comic's series by Eric Powell. Clancy Brown and Paul Giamatti provided the voices for this test. THIS IS NOT INDICATIVE OF THE FINAL PRODUCT As the video tells you, The Goon has yet to find funding which means it may never see the light of day. But how can you not be optimistic looking at this footage. We have already had the full trailer which you can see again below. The Goon TrailerMySpace@Comic-Con | Myspace Video By TwitterButtons.com
