

Courtesy of Entertainment Tonight, here's a new behind-the-scenes look at Scarlett Johansson as The Major and Pilou Asbæk as Batou from the set of Ghost in the Shell. While some of the film was shot in Hong Kong, the video features a behind-the-scenes look from the production's time in New Zealand. Of particular interest is the first image below, that shot features, Johansson, surrounded by Rupert Sanders, British trip-hop singer Tricky (who plays a monk in the film, Mamoru Oshii (director of the 1995 Ghost in the Shell film), Kenji Kamiyama (director of the Ghost in the Shell TV anime) and composer Kenji Kawai (who composed music for the two Ghost in the Shell films) .
