

Sony's latest promotion efforts for Ghost Rider: Spirit of Vengeance depicts exclusive photos and interviews with co-director Brian Taylor, all inside the March 2012 issue of SFX Magazine. While Taylor dots on the Rider urinating flames, Nicolas Cage tackling dual roles, and how to dodge the PG-13 rating violence-wise, the photos featured in the mag' depicts Cage, and the Rider himself. Check out the interview excerpts below, as well the pics! On 'Ghost Rider' urinating fire in the trailer: "That was actually a joke," admits Taylor. "I think that [executive producer] Avi Arad came up with it one day, and you have to be really careful when you make jokes around us, because we'll just take it and run with it and it ends up in the movie. That was pretty much how Crank 2 got made" On Nicolas Cage portraying both Blaze and the later-CGed Rider: "We thought it would be fascinating
