

Nothing terribly exciting but since it's a very slow day for news I figured it was worth a look. I like this pic a lot, it gives off a kind of a Clockwork Orange vibe.. The trailer for the movie was met with a mixed reaction. I thought it looked pretty good a few dodgy looking outfits aside but then I haven't read the book so I have no idea how faithful it looks. The concept is certainly not very original but Lawrence is a fine actress and originality is not always the cornerstone of a great movie. Look at Warrior! Worth keeping an eye on anyway.
