

Ridley Scott, director of 'Alien' and 'Blade Runner,' returns to the genre he helped define. With 'Prometheus,' he creates a groundbreaking mythology, in which a team of explorers discover a clue to the origins of mankind on Earth, leading them on a thrilling journey to the darkest corners of the universe. There, they must fight a terrifying battle to save the future of the human race. In an interview with Yahoo! Movies, Idris Elba (Janek) has revealed that fans needn't worry about the various trailers and TV spots showing off too much of Prometheus. "There's so much more to it than [what is revealed in] the trailer," he told the site, hopefully putting an end to the complaints that the studio has revealed too much about the Alien prequel. As well as revealing the above still, they talk to the actor about his experience working on the film, so be sure to
