

High school student Charley Brewster (Anton Yelchin) begins to discover several disappearances in the area, with all clues leading back to his mother's new neighbor Jerry, who is a vampire. Charley was once a happy high school nerd until he ditched his best friend Evil Ed (Christopher Mintz-Plasse), became popular and started dating Amy Peterson (Imogen Poots), a hot and popular exchange student from the U.K. Things go well for Charley to the day he discovers that his neighbor Jerry (Colin Farrell) is a vampire. He contacts Peter Vincent (David Tennant), the host of Charley's favorite TV show, asking for help with defeating Jerry, who threatens to kill Amy. Fright Night hits theaters August 19th, later this year!

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/BatFreak/news/?a=43030&t=New_International_Trailer_For_IFright_Night_Hits