

Lately, Marvel has been revealing some characters that will be heavily featured in Ultimate Spider-Man (a new Disney XD animated series that will focus on Spidey training to be a true superhero), and the latest character that has been revealed is none other than Luke Cage. Cage, like many other heroes joining Spider-Man, is depicted as a teenager in this series. In addition to an official first-look photo, check out some words from writer/producer Brian Michael Bendis and Marvel TV Head Jeph Loeb: "...but it is fun to write him as a teenager, and I do sort of write him with the knowledge of the man he's going to become", says writer Brian Michael Bendis. "That's kind of the way I wrote the Peter Parker in ULTIMATE SPIDER-MAN [the comic series] for many years. You're writing the teenager who you know will one day become the Peter Parker we know and

Read more: <http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/BatFreak/news/?a=55588>