

We have a ton of DC belt buckles but it's been awhile since we have been able to get in any new Marvel Belt Buckles despite our best efforts. For all of you that have been asking, the new Marvel Belt Buckles have arrived! Norrin Radd was from an idyllic planet, where its people and technology were considered one of the most ancient. This kind of left the rest of his species as lazy and content, while young Radd wanted to search the skies, and go boldly where nobody has gone before! This sounds familiar. It was then that Norrin Radd encountered the space glutton known as Galactus who traverses known space looking for a White Castle, which in this case refers to planets. Mini-cheeseburgers have a lot in common with planets from what I can infer. Galactus had some bad methane planet, and now he has the cosmic munchies, maaaaaan.
