

Six more photos from The Flash have found their way online today, and they offer up a look at some of the upcoming two-parter's CG heavy moments. As you might expect from an episode titled "Attack on Gorilla City," we get to see lots of Grodd here, but also making his debut is Solovar, the villain who the Scarlet Speedster's enemy will look for help in taking down.

This instalment of The Flash airs next Tuesday, with the second part (which sees the gorillas invading Central City) set to air the following week in "Attack on Central City."
