

Season three of AMC's smash hit show The Walking Dead is right around the corner. Yesterday, to get us ready for the new season, they showed off six new images, and now today they have released a new poster. The poster, like the ones from the first two seasons, feature main character Rick Grimes. However, unlike the other two it doesn't feature Rick in the distance, moving towards something. The poster also features the new tag line for the season FIGHT THE DEAD. FEAR THE LIVING. Check the poster out below courtesy of Shock Till You Drop. The Walking Dead is set to return on October 14 and stars Andrew Lincoln, Sarah Wayne Callies, Chandler Riggs, Norman Reedus, Lori Holden, Melissa McBride, Lauren Cohan, Iron E Singleton, Danai Gurira, and David Morrissey.
