

Once Upon A Time closed its winter finale with not just one, but two major surprises. First up was the reveal that Belle & Gold's son Gideon was the hooded figure that killed Emma in her vision. His motivations are yet-to-be seen, but it likely has something to do with his upbringing, which was twisted after the Black Fairy abducted him as an infant. The second reveal was the showstopper as Robin Hood made a triumphant return, but it's now left Emma & Regina trapped in the alternate Enchanted Forest. Check out the new preview for episode eleven, titled "Tougher Than The Rest," below: This March, the next chapter of Once Upon A Time will be the most epic yet as the forces of magic, romance, danger, and hope collide along with spell-binding surprises. Welcome to Storybrooke, a small town in Maine that you won't find on any map. This town is full of magic, populated by fairytale characters once cursed by the Evil Queen
