

This was a great set report by Quint, who relays information on the pivotal scenes involving Bilbo Baggin's find the Elf made blade, Sting. This is a knife to normal sized people, but for a hobbit it's a sword. This is the same sword that Bilbo passes on to Frodo when he begins his journey in Lord of the Rings. Sting isn't just a common blade, it glows blue to warn of nearby Orcs. But, that isn't the only weapon that the group comes across while exploring the troll cave. Thorin also comes across his sword the Orchrist, which is also known nicknamed the "Biter" by the Goblins of the Misty Mountains. For instance, the wet weather cover for The Hobbit as it tours around New Zealand involves greenscreen shots of Gandalf and Bilbo being carried by the eagles. Quint's Set Report for aintitcool.com It is Bilbo who finds the entrance to the troll cave,
