The Flash isn't known for his subtlety. Hey, when you have a bright red suit with yellow lightning bolts you aren't trying to blend into any sort of surroundings. Well, suppose he could hide inside a McDonald's but I doubt the Flash eats much fast food, despite the name. Even when one of the Flashes isn't zipping around above the speed of light as some streaky red blur they'll still have their greater sense of style with this awesome Flash Symbol Stainless Steel Ring! It is forged in the heart of the speed force with 316 Stainless Steel, meaning that the steel is of much higher quality and is far more durable than your regular stainless steel. The reflective properties of this Flash Symbol Stainless Steel Ring should also be noted, giving off a near-chrome sheen over this 3/4 inch wide by .60 inch high ring
