

We have a brand new line of wallets that are super light weight but extremely durable. They are made out of that almost indestructible material called Tyvek! We dare you to try to rip one of these things. We tried and thankfully, we failed! In addition to being super strong, they are also 100% recyclable and made out of eco-friendly materials. We have both DC Comics designs and Star Trek designs. You can see them all on our Wallets page or check out some of my favorites below.
