

In anticipation of tomorrow's season 3 premiere of The Flash, we have some new concept art from Andy Poon and Maya Mani. As you can see, the designs for Kid Flash and Black Siren aren't a million miles away from the final character costumes, but The Rival looks quite a bit different. Many fans were left unimpressed by this new character's somewhat bizarre appearance, and would probably have preferred something more like this - but then it's easy to see why they went a different route, as he does look a little too much like season 2 baddie, Zoom.

I'm changing throwback Thursday to Flashback Thursday. The Flash season 3 premieres this week so here is a concept of Black Siren, Earth 2 evil doppelganger of Black Canary for The Flash season 2. #LaurelLance #BlackCanary #BlackSiren @dccomics @cwtheflash #costume #concept #illustration #KatieCassidy #earth2 #zoom #doppelganger A photo posted by Andy Poon (@andypoondesign) on Oct 6, 2016 at 11:58am PDT Happy Friday! Concept of The Rival

Read more: https://www.comicbookmovie.com/dc_tv/the_flash/new-the-flash-season-3-concept-art-features-alternate-designs-for-a145851