

Disney/Pixar has released a new trailer for Cars 3, and like the initial teaser it places the focus on drama over laughs, as Lightning McQueen (Owen Wilson) comes to terms with the fact that he's past his prime. The movie itself will almost certainly be a lighter affair (at least, we bloody hope so), as the trailer also teases a comeback story, with McQueen stepping up for another face-off with Jackson Storm (Armie Hammer) with the help of new ally, Cruz Ramirez (Cristela Alonzo). Blindsided by a new generation of blazing-fast racers, the legendary Lightning McQueen is suddenly pushed out of the sport he loves. To get back in the game he will need the help of eager young female race technician Cruz Ramirez. Proving that #95 isn't through yet, he will test the heart of a champion on Piston Cup Racing's biggest stage against his new rival, Jackson Storm. Cars 3 is set for release on June 16, 2017.
