

The reason why I say you may be disappointed is that this show will be aimed at a younger audience than Prime, the title is Transformers: Rescue Bots. Below is official press release from The Hub. Created for the younger generation of Transformers fans, the new series from the creators of "Transformers Prime" will feature a simpler, more traditional animation style in a show that centers on a group of Autobots charged by Optimus Prime himself with protecting and learning about humans while stationed on an island off the Eastern seaboard that serves as a high-tech testing ground. Voice talent include Steve Blum (voice of Starscream on "Transformers Prime"), John DiMaggio (voice of Bender on "Futurama"), Maurice LaMarche (voice of Morbo and Calculon on "Futurama"), Lacey Chabert ("Party of Five") and LeVar Burton ("Star Trek: The Next Generation"). We're excited about having the new series AND season two of "Transformers Prime" on The
