

Only a few more episodes remain until the finale, but something is telling me that next Sunday's episode might be the can't-miss-show of the season. The Walking Dead knows how to build tension like no other show on television, and this scene is no exception. When you see young Carl (Chandler Riggs) casually walking through the woods during a zombie apocalypse you can't help but feel the tension beginning to bubble. The Walking Dead airs Sunday nights at 9/8c on AMC.
