

Newsarama are live blogging with Jeph Loeb as he discusses Marvel's in development TV plans. So far he has offered the following exciting updates. First the live action Hulk series from Guillermo Del Toror. Apparently "Del Torro's Hulk will resemble the Avengers movie Hulk as closely as possible".. "I'm very, very confident that the Hulk you're going to see when we finally get on the air on ABC, is going to look like something other than us putting a lot of paint on Lou Ferrigno" Next up is AKA Jessica Jones which will be based on Brian Michael Bendis' Marvel MAX comic Alias. Loeb confirms that both Luke Cage and Carol Danvers will feature. He also offers up brief updates on two more Marvel TV shows. He says Cloak & Dagger will take place in post-Katrina New Orleans and the premise of Mockingbird will be: "by day, a student, by night a secret-agent-in-training.

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/rorschachsrants/news/?a=48254&t=NYCC_11_Marvel_Live_Action_TV_Series_Details_iHulki_iAKA_Jessica_Jonesi_More