

Couple of days ago, first promo image has been revealed for TARZAN 3D at American Film Market. This is another animated take based on Edgar Rice Burroughs' classic jungle character. German film production company Constantin Film and Summit Entertainment are developing it, with Reinhard Klooss set to direct. Now, official plot synopsis is online. Check it out below... While in a remote part of Africa exploring a mineral cache in a mysterious cave, entrepreneur JOHN GREYSTOKE and his wife ALICE are killed in a tragic helicopter crash, leaving their three-year-old JOHN, JR. to fend for himself. Rescued by KALA, a gentle ape, the traumatized child is brought up by a band of mountain gorillas as one of their own, learning the ways of the wild as he grows into a strong and independent young man known as TARZAN. At 14, Tarzan first encounters another human: JANE PORTER, a pretty and intrepid teen
