

It was at the end of Wednesday's episode of Arrow that we first met Talia al Ghul as she saved Oliver Queen from a very sticky situation back in Russia. In this week's "Second Chances," she'll join him in his quest to take down Constantin Kovar, but can the daughter of the villainous Ra's really be trusted? "We have a pretty cool storyline that we've concocted," says showrunner Wendy Mericle, "and I'm actually really excited about where it takes her. It's basically tied to Oliver's past in Russia and also in figuring out who Prometheus is. She will be a crucial part of that." Are you excited for her debut? In his quest to take down Kovar, Oliver (Stephen Amell) gets help from a surprising source – Talia al Ghul (guest star Lexa Doig). However, when she reveals what she wants from him in exchange, Oliver isn't sure he can accept her help. Felicity (Emily Bett Rickards) attempts to hack the NSA to help free
