

In the latest issue of Total Film, the actress was quick to mention her willingness to get her hands dirty in Jon Favreau's latest movie, mainly by performing as many of her own stunts as possible! "The stunt co-ordinator said, 'I've never pulled an actor off a moving horse. Do you want to do it?' Stunt guys always get to know me very quickly because I love stunts and they said, 'If anyone can do it, Olivia can...'" Wilde also went on to talk about finally getting the chance to work with James Bond star Daniel Craig after missing out on a role in 2006's, Casino Royale: "I screen-tested for that and I wanted it so badly. But now I'm happy it didn't work out because we wouldn't have been able to do this, and I think he agreed that this was a better pairing for us." "Daniel Craig taught me a lot.
