

He's the world's only paranormal investigator. But now, he wants to escape from a life of nightmares. However, a brutal murder, a missing artifact and a mysterious girl conspire to drag him back into the dark world of the undead... Have you ever wondered if the person next to you was really part of your world?

Starring: Brandon Routh, Sam Huntington, Anita Briem, Taye Diggs and Peter Stormare. LEEE777 - Released April 29 and I've got to admit it looks an enjoyable little cbm. Also if Henry Cavill Isn't in JLA then Routh definitely should be, he's still got it and was awesome in Scott Pilgrim Vs. The World, so yeah Routh needs to put on that cape once more, views comments as always below.
