

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/joshw24/news/?a=29086&t=Patrick Stewart Reveals His Favourite Moment Playing Professor X

In an interview with Geoff Boucher from The Los Angeles Times: Hero Complex, the actor revealed that he has only one regret about his time with the X-Men franchise. And it's that his favourite scene ended up being cut from one of the movies! "The best thing I ever did got cut out of one of them. I had to get Xavier's wheelchair into this elevator and it was just an inch wider than the chair. I worked on it and worked on it; I got to the point that I could zoom right — whoosh — and spin on that wheel and be facing the camera. It was brilliant. It was probably the best scene of my career. It didn't make it in." "I'm not joking about that!" When he was quizzed about what it's like to see young actor James McAvoy taking over the role of Professor X, Stewart joked that he