

Get this; Not only will Ford be dropping by the Jimmy Kimmel show to be involved in some type of skit with Chewie there(No, not Peter Mayhew) but his Cowboys And Aliens director John Favreau will be guest directing. From EW.. Tonight Harrison Ford stops by Jimmy Kimmel Live!, where the ABC late night host reunites Han Solo with his old Millennium Falcon co-pilot Chewbacca. Sources are keeping quiet on the contents of the cold open skit which brings together Ford with his tall furry Star Wars co-star, but Geeks of a Certain Age should definitely watch. Need more convincing? The episode is guest directed by Jon Favreau. Here's the photo, and we'll update tomorrow morning with any available video from the show By TwitterButtons.com
