

Last week, Warner Bros. released an official announcement highlighting the locations where The Dark Knight Rises six minute prologue will be available to watch. It will be shown only in select 70MM IMAX theaters before Mission Impossible: Ghost Protocol, but this ultimately means that many won't be able to see the footage despite being located near to regular digital IMAX theaters. So the question is, are you planning on travelling the extra distance to see the preview? Even if you live near one of the few screens showing it, are you interested enough that you're willing to pay extra? Cast your vote here and check back soon for the results.
