

It seemed like a done deal anyway but until we hear something official in cases like that anything can happen. And there are those that wish something did on this one! But like it or not Patty Jenkins is bringing us Thor 2. There is no doubt she lacks experience but what we have seen from her has been very impressive, even if it wouldn't exactly seem to qualify her for such a big special effects driven film. Have Marvel earned the benefit of the doubt with their previous choices of director or do you think this is just too much of a risk? Vote below and lets see where you guys stand..
