

Yesterday Fresh posted an article with some revealing hints as to certain scenes that would be filming on the last day of The Avengers New York shoot. One detail revealed on the map above has caused a bit of a stir. The Leviathan. What the Hell is it? Well it could be any number of things. But one theory, backed up by a Tweet earlier today, suggest that it is some type of creature. In this case a giant sea monster. That IS what the Leviathan of mythology is after all. But of course we have no definitive proof that this info is on the level. More theories suggest a creature but one more indented in Marvel history. The Dragon known as Fin Fang Foom. We know that director John Favreau placed a Foom Easter egg in Iron Man 2 and wanted to one day use the creature as a movie
