

We were all set to have our final poll to determine the CBM community's favorite comic book movie when I realized I had left out quite a few titles! We already covered the X-Men movies in their own poll so here are what's left from the Marvel movies out there not distributed by Marvel Studios. And no, I will not be adding Howard The Duck or Man Thing! Vote away.. Ok, that should do it..promise! After the results of this one we will have 5 titles covering the full spectrum of comic book based movies duking it out for the prestigious title of CBM users favorite comic book movie ever. Look out for that poll towards the end of the week or early next. By TwitterButtons.com
