

Fox have produced 5 X movies so far. Bryan Singer's original two were generally considered (critically anyway) to be far superior to both Brett Ratner's third installment and Gavin Hood's X-Men Origins: Wolverine. But then Mathew Vaughn's prequel/reboot changed all that, exceeding all expectations and becoming something of a mimi phenomonan in that even the vast majority of fans that were calling for Vaughn's head admitted to really enjoying it. But of course, both Wolverine and X3 have their fans too. Both actually grossed more money than either of Singer's entries and even have staunch defenders here on CBM. So lets find out once and for all. Which X movie do you guys think is truly the best yet? By TwitterButtons.com
