

According to Rotten Tomatoes, X-Men: First Class was the best reviewed superhero comic book movie of 2011. But which out of Ghost Rider: Spirit of Vengeance, The Avengers, The Dark Knight Rises and The Amazing Spider-Man will triumph in 2012? When I asked you guys which of these you thought would be the most financially successful, a whopping 65.39% of you decided that there was no doubt that TDKR would come out on top. But now I want to know which you think the critics will most fall in love with. While I find it hard to imagine the new Ghost Rider getting top scores, it's difficult to decide which of the others will win. With great casts and directors behind them all, this is a tough one, so get voting... And before you automatically decide that The Dark Knight Rises is a guaranteed winner, who would have ever thought this time
