

I asked you guys which of the big 2012 releases would be the biggest hit at the box office and The Dark Knight Rises came out on top as the clear winner. When it comes to 2013 though, will the victor emerge with such a huge majority? Well, it's between Iron Man 3 (helmed by Shane Black), Man of Steel (helmed by Zack Snyder) and THOR 2 (helmed by Patty Jenkins). Each of these directors are tackling a superhero movie for the first time apart from Snyder who dabbled in the genre with an adaptation of Watchmen back in 2009. So, which do you guys will end up making the most cash come 2013? The fact is, we know very little about each of these movies right now - two of them aren't even filming yet - but that doesn't mean there's not still room for speculation! Here's your chance to
