

As we all know WB/DC Entertainment have only really adapted a handful of characters from the main DCU, but have done so quite a few times. So to keep the numbers down I have left out a couple of the Batman movies (I'm sure you can guess which ones) and restricted the list to main DCU characters only-no Watchmen, Jonah Hex or Vertigo etc. Vote away. Any and all calls to add Arnold Schwarzenegger's Mr Freeze to the list will be laughed at then ignored. Seriously though, if you are missing someone from either of Joel Schumaker's Batman flicks (Jim Carrey wasn't a bad Riddler to be fair) let me know and we can have a good ol giggle about it.
