

There are many, MANY theories doing the rounds when it comes to who will be behind the mask in next January's The Superior Spider-Man #1. Dan Slott has claimed that it won't be Peter Parker donning the slightly different costume, but that could be a red herring of some sort...perhaps the character fakes his death or changes his name? That's one idea, and while some of the others are completely ridiculous or make perfect sense (well, sort of), we've tried to cover all the possibilities with the poll below. However, if you have any thoughts or theories of your own, make sure to tell us in the usual place.

Read more: <http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/JoshWildingNewsAndReviews/news/?a=68936>