

Here is what Movienewz claim to have been told by an anonymous source. There's a lot of information here, and no reason to doubt their word. The following certainly seems to fit with what we've heard from both director Zack Snyder and the various actors involved, but as with any rumor, it's best to take it with a pinch of salt for the time being! General Sam Lane, the father of Lois Lane, is a central figure in director Zack Snyder's Superman reboot. This really is as Zack described in several interviews about the film, a "real world" Superman. I'm told that when Superman arrives on the scene; people don't know what to think. He's an alien from another planet. What are his real intentions? He's not human and that scares a lot of people. Here's a guy who can fly, see through walls, is bullet proof and can lift a tank.
