While some may have been seen before, a few promotional images for Marvel's much-anticipated films THOR & Captain America, Michael Bay's Transformers: Dark Of The Moon, Real Steel, and the fourth 'Pirates' movie Pirates Of The Caribbean: On Stranger Tides have made their way online. These promos will most likely be used for toy lines advertising. Not much to get excited over, but THOR hits the big-screen May 6, Pirates 4 May 20, Transformers 3 July 1, Captain America July 22, and Real Steel hits October 7. What do you think?
