

Rafe appeared on BBC's morning show Something for the Weekend and confirms what most of already suspected. Prometheus has been shrouded in mystery and disinformation. I just hope Rafe is better at acting than at keeping secrets, because if he keeps this up he won't working for long. In this interview Spall confirms, like many actors before him, that Prometheus is very much part of the 'Alien' universe. "[Ridley Scott] directed the first Alien, and this is... I've been sent an e-mail about what I'm allowed to say and what I'm not allowed to say and I haven't read the e-mail. (laughs). It's out next June, and it's part of the Alien franchise. I'm in it, and Charlize Theron, Noomi Rapace and Michael Fassbender. I think fans of the franchise will love it. Alien is one of the best films ever made,
