

Tonight's episode of Legends of Tomorrow will take the team to the 1980s, but will Ray Palmer once again be left on the Waverider? Not if Heat Wave has anything to say about it! Despite the fact that The Atom suit has been destroyed, Ray still wants to be a hero, but he could be about to embark on a slightly darker path now that he's been given the deceased Captain Cold's freeze gun and goggles. How long this status quo will last for Ray remains to be seen, but it's a pretty fun direction to take the character in until he can somehow be reunited with his suit (and not a bad way for The CW to save money on special effects for a few weeks). We know that Captain Cold is going to return to Legends of Tomorrow as a member of the Legion of Doom, so he'll likely have something to say about this... When the Legends trace a timequake
