

Kristofer Ryan Huff, 19, has been charged with aggravated assault after attacking his roommate with replica 'Wolverine' claws. According to KSL.com, Huff used a knife and a replica set of the claws [pictured in the video report above] on his 20 year old friend after learning that his mother is dating him. Really! She too ended up being stabbed in the arm as she tried to restrain her son, although the roommate suffered far more serious injuries. "(The alleged victim) sustained probably five to six wounds to his head, and then two to his arm, multiple defense wounds on his hands and then one real deep wound to his thigh," Vernal Police Sgt. Vance Norton told the site.

Read more: <http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/JoshWildingNewsAndReviews/news/?a=66123>