

While we were tipped earlier of the following, I was recently contacted by another movie extra, who filmed "explosive" scenes today for next summer's The Avengers. And in their report, what's further confirmed are extraterrestrials evidently being involved in the scenes. And if that isn't enough, the Daily Mail have also posted their coverage, dotting on the same subject. Today was my first day of work as an extra on the movie, "Avengers". There was a great deal of sitting around, but it was thrilling during the street scene. We were running and screaming from the invasion of aliens or some force. They also feed you well. There was catered breakfast when we arrived at the Halle Building at 6:30AM, snacks throughout the day, and three choices of meat at 1:00PM. From Daily Mail, who've also provided more superb quality images from today's shoot, they openly state the following: Clevelanders were treated to the
