

Source: The Atlantic Okay, so the kid is the son of freelance documentary producer and writer Darren Garnick who sort of has his own agenda behind the line of questions but it's still fun to see these politicians become befuddled when faced with questions from someone not even old enough to vote. Well, we got 1 Spider-Man, 1 Mr. Incredible and a bevy of Superman's. It appears that the GOP party is decidedly a DC camp. As for Obama, well apparently his track record shows that he plays both sides. ZING! Follow @MarkJulianCBM
