

In all the movie polls I have featured on CBM this is the one that has had the most votes for the most negative option. With 453 Votes, 39.95% of you thought that Marcus Nispel's Conan The Barbarian was garbage. The next highest was the more positive second option with 296 Votes (26.10%). The general consensus from the comments section seems to be: Bad script, bad acting, bad special effects, decent stunts. Now I would never let any critic or majority poll influence my decision to see a movie if I really wanted to, but since I as on the fence anyway, and I usually find you lot are quite lenient with movies in general, I'm gonna pass on this. I'll catch it on DVD..and if it's awesome we will be having words! By TwitterButtons.com
