

When I asked you guys which of the big 2012 releases would be the biggest hit at the box office, The Dark Knight Rises came out on top as the clear winner. When it comes to 2013 though, did the victor emerge with such a huge majority? Well, it was between Iron Man 3 (helmed by Shane Black), Man of Steel (helmed by Zack Snyder) and THOR 2 (helmed by Patty Jenkins). Each of these directors are tackling a superhero movie for the first time apart from Snyder who dabbled in the genre with an adaptation of Watchmen back in 2009. So, which did you guys would end up making the most cash come 2013? The clear winner was Man of Steel. Was this because we've seen more of this movie than the other two or simply due to the fact that you're desperate to see Superman back on the big
