

With a whopping 2,178 (58.77%) votes you guys chose Robert Downey Jr's portrayal of Tony Stark as the best. Now you won't get much argument for me, he was great. But I don't think he was the best. My vote went to Chris Evans as Steve Rogers who came in at second with 538 Votes(14.52%). Chris Hemsworth as Thor was third with 302 Votes (8.15%) and Ed Norton was in at fourth place with 201 Votes (5.42%) as Bruce Banner. Here are the results in full.. There seems to have been a bit of confusion in the comments section of the Poll article. This was only Marvel STUDIOS characters, not any Marvel character that has appeared onscreen. So any of the X-Men(covered in a previous poll) or Spider-Man, The Punishers etc were not eligible. By TwitterButtons.com
