

Variety reports that Peruvian director Ricardo de Montreuil is in talks with 20th Century Fox to helm Zorro Reborn; a futuristic take on the classic character which re-imagines him as a masked vigilante who faces off against an evil tyrant and his gang of mercenaries in a mission of revenge. Produced by Mark Amin, Cami Winikoff and David Higgins for Sobini Films, the script was written by Lee Shipman and Brian McGreevy. There is no deal currently in place for De Montreuil, although he is expected to direct a screen test with star Gael Garcia Bernal. Below is the director's short film, The Raven.

Read more: <http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/JoshWildingNewsAndReviews/news/?a=55924>